

(7-7) Pattern of OPPOSITION.

This 7-7 pattern of opposition is 2 planets 180° apart from one another.

Astrologically speaking, it can be harmonious or equally turbulent (which we will elaborate on on pages 154-157), if within your sun, moon and rising sign; two of the three signs are:

Aries | Libra
Taurus | Scorpio
Gemini | Sag
Cancer | Capricorn
Leo | Aquarius
Virgo | Pisces
Libra | Aries
Scorpio | Taurus
Sag | Gemini
Capricorn | Cancer
Aquarius | Leo
Pisces | Virgo

...but since you have a sun, moon and rising sign, a third astrological sign is going to have to fit into this equation. The following compatible third sign “unblocks”[the possible] disharmony of this vibration:

Aries Lib	3 rd sign: LEO, SAG, GEMINI or AQUARIUS
Tau Scorp	3 rd sign: CAP, VIRGO, CANCER or PISC
Gem Sag	3 rd sign: AQUARIUS, LIBRA, LEO or ARIES
Canc Capr	3 rd sign: PISCES, SCORPIO, TAU or VIRGO
Leo Aqu	3 rd sign: SAG, ARIES, GEMINI or LIBRA
Virg Pisc	3 rd sign: TAU, CAP, CANCER or SCORPIO
Lib Aries	3 rd sign: GEMINI, AQU, SAG or LEO
Scorp Tau	3 rd sign: CANCER, PISCES, VIRGO or CAP
Sag Gem	3 rd sign: LEO, ARIES, AQUARIUS or LIBRA
Capr Canc	3 rd sign: TAU, VIRGO, PISCES or SCORPIO
Aqu Leo	3 rd sign: GEM, LIBRA, ARIES or SAG
Pisc Virgo	3 rd sign: CANCER, SCORPIO, TAURUS, CAP

Listed are the third signs that are disharmonious in this 7-7 vibration:

Aries Lib	3 rd sign: CANCER	or	CAPRICORN
Tau Scorp	3 rd sign: LEO	or	AQUARIUS
Gem Sag	3 rd sign: VIRGO	or	PISCES
Canc Capr	3 rd sign: LIBRA	or	ARIES
Leo Aqu	3 rd sign: SCORPIO	or	TAURUS
Virg Pisc	3 rd sign: SAG	or	GEMINI
Lib Ari	3 rd sign: CANCER	or	CAPRICORN
Scorp Tau	3 rd sign: LEO	or	AQUARIUS
Sag Gem	3 rd sign: VIRGO	or	PISCES
Capr Canc	3 rd sign: LIBRA	or	ARIES
Aqu Leo	3 rd sign: SCORPIO	or	TAURUS
Pisc Virgo	3 rd sign: SAG	or	GEMINI

Sneaking a quick peek (near midways from the top of page 185/the 2nd chart) would help you clearly see why there’s possible friction in this vibration.

In order for us to experience growth, we have to experience opposition.

We cannot go through life gliding by without being faced with it (an obstacle, or two, or three)-that is how we evolve. Opposition is a life lesson that tests our strength, our mental, emotional, and spiritual endurance and makes us aware of our weaknesses as well as our strengths.

OUR SAMENESS:

1-1 Pattern of Awareness: Conjunction. It shows us our “sameness”-the identical astrological sign-0° apart (see page 140).

THE IN-BETWEEN:

2-12-growth (see page 142).

3-11-flow (see page 145).

4-10-tension (see page 147).

5-9-opportunity (see page 149).

6-8-confusion (see page 151).

...are all patterns of awareness in between sameness and difference.

OUR DIFFERENCES:

7-7 Pattern of Awareness: Opposition. It shows us our differences-the opposite astrological sign that is 180° apart (see page 153).

It's not so much our sameness and likenesses that makes us aware, but rather our differences-what opposes us. The operative word here is “opposition.” That which opposes us will bring about awareness.

In astrology, the sign in the constellation that is 180° opposite yours is what opposes you-what you are in essence. That is why it is important to know where the two signs opposing one another are alike, and where they are different, because they make up “you” (concentrated and diluted).

Example:

diluted (180% you)		concentrated (180% you)
CANCER	<-----sun----->	CAPRICORN.....	(is opposite Cancer)
TAURUS	<-----moon----->	SCORPIO.....	(is opposite Taurus)
VIRGO	<-----rising----->	PISCES.....	(is opposite Virgo)

SIX DEGREES OF SEPARATION:

Six Degrees of Separation is the idea that (on average) every person is approximately six steps away from any other person on Earth, like that of a “friend of a friend;” connecting two people in six steps (or less).

Well, this next section, I will be talking about astrological opposition. It can be compared to the theory of the Six Degrees of Separation concept (somewhat) because that “astrological opposition” is the zodiac sign that is exactly six zodiac signs apart from one another [like, see example above]. And like with Six Degrees of Separation's theory; you are about to see your connection with the sign that is opposite and six signs apart from yours:

Aries

Libra

Aries, the (1st sign of the zodiac), is concerned with all things having to do with self-selfishly. Astrologically, he is placed 1st and naturally believes that all things belong to him and are for him-only. His motto is “I am,” whereas Libra (the 7th sign of the zodiac), rather than being concerned with self; is concerned with all things having to do with balance and equality within all relationships and partnerships, concern for relationship, building bridges-and filling in the gaps of them. His motto is “I seek.”

If you take a quick peek at the Table of Content’s chapters: 7-Element, 8-Plight, 9-Energy, 10-Quality, and 11-Disposition; you see ways in which Aries and Libra identify. Whereas if you look further down at chapter 12 the Instinct chapter, you will see how Aries and Libra are opposed/opposite.

So if Aries and Libra are your sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign; a third sign is going to have to fit into this equation (sun+moon+rising sign). In considering astrological aspects (the degrees of closeness or distance between constellations-as explained on pages 137-153), you will find that the best (self) compatibility match (with having an Aries and a Libra sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign); is either another Aries or another Libra (see Pattern of Conjunction 1-1/page 140). With this addition, like a teeter-totter; that 3rd sign (another Aries or another Libra) further adds to this 7-7 Pattern of Opposition even more so.

So what does that mean?

Oposing signs like Aries and Libra can do very well together or not so well together, but think of that 3rd sign (another Aries or another Libra) as that rock beneath a wooden teeter-totter further adding to harmony or disharmony.

Note: if you have Aries and a Libra sun and moon sign, or as moon and rising sign, or as rising and sun sign, and your third sign is any other sign than another Aries or Libra, view Patterns: 2-12, 3-11, 4-10, 5-9, and 6-8 to see why or why not your Aries + Libra + (that 3rd sign) may or may not be harmonious in this sun sign+moon sign+rising sign vibration.

The same goes for:

Taurus

Scorpio

Taurus, the (2nd sign of the zodiac), is possessive and concerned with all the resources for himself (tight-fistedly). He is not about to give away or share his resources. His motto is “I have,” whereas Scorpio (the 8th sign of the zodiac), believes in shared and joint resources from others-yes-but also with others. His motto is “I desire” (to have).

If you take a quick peek at the Table of Content’s chapters: 7-Element, 8-Plight, 9-Energy, 10-Quality, and 11-Disposition; you see ways in which Taurus and Scorpio identify. Whereas if you look further down at chapter 12 the Instinct chapter, you will see how Taurus and Scorpio are opposed/opposite.

So if Taurus and Scorpio are your sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign; a third sign is going to have to fit into this equation (sun+moon+rising sign). In considering astrological aspects (the degrees of closeness or distance between constellations-as explained on pages 137-153), you will find that the best (self) compatibility match (with having Taurus and a Scorpio sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign); is either another Taurus or another Scorpio (see Pattern of Conjunction 1-1/page 140). With this addition, like a teeter-totter; that 3rd sign (another Taurus or another Scorpio) further adds to this 7-7 Pattern of Opposition even more so.

So what does that mean?

Opposing signs like Taurus and Scorpio can do very well together or not so well together, but think of that 3rd sign (another Taurus or another Scorpio) as that rock beneath a wooden teeter-totter further adding to harmony or disharmony.

Note: if you have Taurus and a Scorpio sun and moon sign, or as moon and rising sign, or as rising and sun sign, and your third sign is any other sign than another Taurus or Scorpio, view Patterns: 2-12, 3-11, 4-10, 5-9, and 6-8 to see why or why not your Taurus + Scorpio + (that 3rd sign) may or may not be harmonious in this sun sign+moon sign+rising sign vibration.

The same goes for:

Gemini

Sagittarius

Gemini, (the 3rd sign of the zodiac) is mentally active, but these philosophical and intellectual journeys are usually short, and quick and all over the place, as is their element-air: restless. Gemini's motto is "I think," (in short terms/trips) whereas Sagittarius (the 9th sign of the zodiac) is "I see." Also philosophical, Sagittarius' wanderlust makes them more physically active therefore, his journeys are longer. He is not so mentally restless as his opposite (Gemini).

If you take a quick peek at the Table of Content's chapters: 7-Element, 8-Plight, 9-Energy, 10-Quality, and 11-Disposition; you see ways in which Gemini and Sagittarius identify. Whereas if you look further down at chapter 12 the Instinct chapter, you will see how Gemini and Sagittarius are opposed/opposite.

So if Gemini and Sagittarius are your sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign; a third sign is going to have to fit into this equation (sun+moon+rising sign). In considering astrological aspects (the degrees of closeness or distance between constellations-as explained on pages 137-153), you will find that the best (self) compatibility match (with having Gemini and a Sagittarius sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign); is either another Gemini or another Sagittarius (see Pattern of Conjunction 1-1/page 140). With this addition, like a teeter-totter; that 3rd sign (another Gemini or another Sagittarius) further adds to this 7-7 Pattern of Opposition even more so.

So what does that mean?

Opposing signs like Gemini and Sagittarius can do very well together or not so well together, but think of that 3rd sign (another Gemini or another Sagittarius) as that rock beneath a wooden teeter-totter further adding to harmony or disharmony.

Note: if you have Gemini and a Sagittarius sun and moon sign, or as moon and rising sign, or as rising and sun sign, and your third sign is any other sign than another Gemini or Sagittarius, view Patterns: 2-12, 3-11, 4-10, 5-9, and 6-8 to see why or why not your Gemini + Sagittarius + (that 3rd sign) may or may not be harmonious in this sun sign+moon sign+rising sign vibration. The same goes for:

Cancer

Capricorn

Cancer (the “mother of” and 4th sign of the zodiac)’ s concern is for security and stability. Most all of what they do, see, think, obtain, live, breathe and are, is gathered through intuition and by way of emotion-for their motto is “I feel,” whereas Capricorn (the “father of” and the 10th sign of the zodiac)’s concern is reputation, money and career: money first, family second. Cancer (his opposite) sees it in the opposite order. The Capricorn way to achieving all the material things is by way of social climbing which hence their motto: “I use.”

If you take a quick peek at the Table of Content’s chapters: 7-Element, 8-Plight, 9-Energy, 10-Quality, and 11-Disposition; you see ways in which Cancer and Capricorn identify. Whereas if you look further down at chapter 12 the Instinct chapter, you will see how Cancer and Capricorn are opposed/opposite.

So if Cancer and Capricorn are your sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign; a third sign is going to have to fit into this equation (sun+moon+rising sign). In considering astrological aspects (the degrees of closeness or distance between constellations-as explained on pages 137-153), you will find that the best (self) compatibility match (with having Cancer and a Capricorn sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign); is either another Cancer or another Capricorn (see Pattern of Conjunction 1-1/page 140). With this addition, like a teeter-totter; that 3rd sign (another Cancer or another Capricorn) further adds to this 7-7 Pattern of Opposition even more so.

So what does that mean?

Opposing signs like Cancer and Capricorn can do very well together or not so well together, but think of that 3rd sign (another Cancer or another Capricorn) as that rock beneath a wooden teeter-totter further adding to harmony or disharmony.

Note: if you have Cancer and a Capricorn sun and moon sign, or as moon and rising sign, or as rising and sun sign, and your third sign is any other sign than another Cancer or Capricorn, view Patterns: 2-12, 3-11, 4-10, 5-9, and 6-8 to see why or why not your Cancer + Capricorn + (that 3rd sign) may or may not be harmonious in this sun sign+moon sign+rising sign vibration.

The same goes for:

Leo

Aquarius

Leo (the 5th sign of the zodiac) is whose motto is: “I will,” is self-promoting and concerned with all things having to do with self-opinion, and his own interests-first-before the interests of others and groups, whereas, Aquarius (the 11th sign of the zodiac whose motto is: “I know”) is concerned with group association and interests directed toward mankind and humanity first-before his own.

If you take a quick peek at the Table of Content’s chapters: 7-Element, 8-Plight, 9-Energy, 10-Quality, and 11-Disposition; you see ways in which Leo and Aquarius identify. Whereas if you look further down at chapter 12 the Instinct chapter, you will see how Leo and Aquarius are opposed/opposite.

So if Leo and Aquarius are your sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign; a third sign is going to have to fit into this equation (sun+moon+rising sign). In considering astrological aspects (the degrees of closeness or distance between constellations-as explained on pages 137-153), you will find that the best (self) compatibility match (with having Leo and a Aquarius sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign); is either another Leo or another Aquarius (see Pattern of Conjunction 1-1/ page 140). With this addition, like a teeter-totter; that 3rd sign (another Leo or another Aquarius) further adds to this 7-7 Pattern of Opposition even more so.

So what does that mean?

Opposing signs like Leo and Aquarius can do very well together or not so well together, but think of that 3rd sign (another Leo or another Aquarius) as that rock beneath a wooden teeter-totter further adding to harmony or disharmony.

Note: if you have Leo and a Aquarius sun and moon sign, or as moon and rising sign, or as rising and sun sign, and your third sign is any other sign than another Leo or Aquarius, view Patterns: 2-12, 3-11, 4-10, 5-9, and 6-8 to see why or why not your Leo + Aquarius + (that 3rd sign) may or may not be harmonious in this sun sign+moon sign+rising sign vibration.

The same goes for:

Virgo

Pisces

Virgo (the 6th sign of the zodiac, whose motto is: "I analyze") is analytical and practical before validating anything, and has a objective and realistic view of life. He is at a place in the house where there's the need to be of service to others and seeks to analyze and explore positive/negative experiences to make sense of either, whereas Pisces (the 12th sign of the zodiac, whose motto is: "I believe") validates subjectively-by way of what they feel and believe. In comparison his to Virgo opposite; Pisces has a subjective view of life, as it is through Pisces' emotion and intuition that he/she process what Virgo analyzes.

If you take a quick peek at the Table of Content's chapters: 7-Element, 8-Plight, 9-Energy, 10-Quality, and 11-Disposition; you see ways in which Virgo and Pisces identify. Whereas if you look further down at chapter 12 the Instinct chapter, you will see how Virgo and Pisces are opposed/opposite.

So if Virgo and Pisces are your sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign; a third sign is going to have to fit into this equation (sun+moon+rising sign). In considering astrological aspects (the degrees of closeness or distance between constellations-as explained on pages 137-153), you will find that the best (self) compatibility match (with having Virgo and a Pisces sun and moon sign, or your moon and rising sign, or your rising and sun sign); is either another Virgo or another Pisces (see Pattern of Conjunction 1-1/ page 140). With this addition, like a teeter-totter; that 3rd sign (another Virgo or another Pisces) further adds to this 7-7 Pattern of Opposition even more so.

So what does that mean?

Opposing signs like Virgo and Pisces can do very well together or not so well together, but think of that 3rd sign (another Virgo or another Pisces) as that rock beneath a wooden teeter-totter further adding to harmony or disharmony.

Note: if you have Virgo and a Pisces sun and moon sign, or as moon and rising sign, or as rising and sun sign, and your third sign is any other sign than another Virgo or Pisces, view Patterns: 2-12, 3-11, 4-10, 5-9, and 6-8 to see why or why not your Virgo + Pisces + (that 3rd sign) may or may not be harmonious in this sun sign+moon sign+rising sign vibration.
